A course of instruction is a standalone course that meets for a period of time and provides instruction that may or may not be related to a program of study, but is either not part of the sequence or can be taken independent of the full sequence as a stand-alone option. A Course of Instruction may directly prepare for a certificate or other completion credential or it can stand alone as an optional preparation or, in the case of students requiring catch-up work, a prerequisite for a program. A stand-alone course might lead to a credential for a trade, occupation, vocation, profession, or it might improve, enhance or add to skills and abilities related to occupational/laborer opportunities.
